PART II.

HOUSTON, TEXAS, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 8, 1893.

HOW SHE WAS DETHRONED.

Order Rapids Man Shows the Part Thorston and Stevens Played.

Order Rapids, Iowa, December 8.—P. W. Baker, of this city, who has just returned from a prolonged foreign trip, was interviewed yesterday in regard to the Hawaiian affair and said:

I was in the Hawaiians for four months last winter, spending most of the time in the capital city, Honolulu. I visited the principal places on the islands of Molokai, Maui, and Hawaii and talked with many of the leading men native Hawaiians, native Americans and foreign-born resident citizens concerning the trouble in matters of government and their remedy. I was there during the overthrow of the queen's government and am much of it as any person could. I talked with members of the queen's army and of her cabinet, also with commanders of the provincial forces and members of the command of public safety, so my information was obtained on the ground, at the office and from the men who were the actual participants in the overthrow.

The party which differs from the party of the queen is that of the friends of other nations which have come from hemispherical to better conditions. In 1882 when the delegation of American commissioners arrived, they were given over almost entirely to the priests, who played upon the superstitions of the people. There was a great fight between them by the priests and doctors who gave the result to them would be the same.

In 1883 there was a revival of religious proportions.

In the year 1884 the first constitution was adopted by the incoming church.
